Falk Granted Ford Fellowship, Baby

Dr. Eugene Hannet Falk, chairman of the department of Foreign Languages at UB has been awarded a fellowship by the Ford Foundation fund for the advancement of education. Dr. Falk was one of 246 teachers in the United States who share a grant of approximately $1,400,000.

Dr. Falk, together with 4 professors from Yale, and a professor from UConn, Conn. College, and Wesleyan make up the Conn. contingent of the honored scholars.

A native of Czechoslovakia, Eugene H. Falk received his doctorate from Victoria University in Manchester, England in 1942. After studying in Europe, he joined the UB faculty in 1946. He became a department head in '47.

Dr. Falk, now a resident of Fairfield, is married and is the father of a daughter, Ingrid, and a son, Johnathan, who was born shortly after the Ford fellowships were made public.

FUND DRIVE $4,633 SHY

Harvey (Alumni-Hall-By-Fall-I-Hope) Seltzer has announced that the Student Center Drive is $4,633.20 short of its $15,000 goal. Seltzer also stated that UB has attained 2/3 of its goal but, he said with a discontented sigh, "we have only 14 school days to go" before the drive ends.

In a detailed report, Seltzer stated that the final report meeting is scheduled for April 29. By that time UB should know whether or not we will have our "Alumni Hall By Fall."

One thing is certain. We will not have our student center building unless everyone does his share. The various committees, team captains, etc. are all doing their jobs to the best of their abilities. It is now up to the donors to make Alumni Hall a reality by Fall.

Charter Day—May 6

The University will celebrate "Charter Day" with a convocation held on May 6 at the Klein Memorial Auditorium. The convocation will start at 10:20 A. M. All students are urged to attend the affair.

KNIGHTS OF THUNDER GIVE "RELAXING" PRE-EXAM PLAY

The Knights of Thunder are working on a special project entitled "A Night with Dionysus," which is designed and guaranteed to make students relax and forget their pre-final jitters, thereby preparing them to take exams in a more cool and collected manner. Psychologists claim that this attitude is more conducive to clearer thought while under pressure and the Knights are going to try to prove it.

Knights Stan Josephson, Dee Casillo, Joyce Mathewson, Bert Arthur, Leo Muldoon, and Dom Salinaro are lending their able assistance to guarantee an unforgettable night of thrills, chills, and fun for UBites.

"A Night with Dionysus" will be presented at the Little Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday nights, May 13 and 14. Ticket announcements will be made in the next issue of the Scribe.

UB Students Run Bridgeport In Mock Legislature April 25

April 25 has been set aside by Mayor McLevy as the day when UB students will take over the governmental offices of the city of Bridgeport, from the office of Mayor to the office of Tax Collector.

Conducted by the Political Relations Forum, the Students Civic Officials Day has as its objective first-hand participation and observation by the students of actual governmental structure and its operation.

MSA GROUP PARTS: 28 OFF TO INDIANA

By RON GOLD

UB students bid a fond "Adieu," "Arrivederci" and "Auf Wiedersehn" to 28 MSA workplan students at Marina Circle, noontime on April 3. These students headed toward the Bridgeport railroad station where they boarded a 12:15 train which would eventually get them to Evansville College in Evansville, Ind.

When they arrive at Evansville, the MSA students will enter a situation similar to their collegiate setup here in Bridgeport. It is felt by University President James H. Halsey and various labor, management and government officials that the students can find jobs for their skills in Evansville. The departure of the 28 students leave 38 MSA students here on campus. All of these students have acceptable working positions in the Bridgeport area.

Mr. Halsey stated that by working with "smaller groups, we can concentrate our efforts" toward a greater degree of success and assurance.

He also felt that the MSA plan as it now stands at the University is a very good one and Mr. Halsey further stated that he has much hope for its success. Forty is the maximum number of MSA students usually sent to a school; approximately 70 were enrolled at UB.

Mr. Leo J. Dunn, labor consultant for the Community Chest, speaking about the MSA plan said that, "We profit by experience. We are a pilot city in the plan and the whole plan is experimental in nature."

Scholarships Available

Several scholarships have been established to aid deserving students at UB who need financial help. Dean Fish says that an official announcement will soon be made on three more. A brief description of some of the awards will follow. If you believe you can qualify and need help, apply at Student Personnel, third floor of Howland Hall.

1. The Boldakoff Memorial Scholarship, provided by our Maintenance Department, will be awarded to an upper classman who has a 3.0 QPR for this year. The scholarship will pay 1/2 of next year's tuition.

2. The Bridgeport Business and Professional Women's Club provide $100 each year to a sophomore girl resident of Bridgeport who has a good record her freshman year and is majoring in a business or professional career.

Speakers Contest Ready For May 1

The annual Speech Contest scheduled for April 24 has been postponed until May 1, due to the Easter Vacation. It will be held in the Burroughs Library Auditorium on Thursday evening, May 1, at 8 P. M.

Elective offices include the office of Mayor, President of the Common Council, Chairman of the Board of Education, Superintendent of Police, Fire Commissioner, Health Commissioner, Superintendent of Public Welfare, and Prosecuting Attorney.

In addition to the eight elective offices, approximately 27 appointive offices will be filled by the student mayor. These appointed officers will fill virtually every major governmental office in Bridgeport.

Meter Stolen In Baffling Mystery

Never before in the history of the University of Bridgeport has the wrath of the students hit such a high peak.

The giant thermometer on Cortright lawn which recorded the dollar-by-dollar progress of the drive for a new Student Union Building was stolen sometime Thursday morning.

The Student Center Fund thermometer which was reported stolen last week was presented to Harvey (Alumni by Fall) Seltzer at the Beta Gamma-Pi Omeg Chi dance Friday night.

The thermometer which showed two-thirds of the $15,000 goal already attained was erected at the beginning of the drive.

Harvey Seltzer, chairman of the committee, when asked how would he want the vandals treated when caught, he said, "My recommendation would be to apply some of the same wood the thermometer was made of to that portion of the vandals' respective anatomies where it would do the most good."

Pi Delta To Initiate Nine

The University of Bridgeport chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, national honorary journalism fraternity, will initiate nine pledges in a ceremony in the lounge of Cortright Hall at 7:30 on April 21, according to Arthur B. Toft, secretary of the UB chapter.

Seven of the pledges will be elected to full fraternity membership while two other pledges will be elected to honorary membership.

Those elected to active membership are Richard W. Handler, John M. Smith, Virginia Tennant, Roger Rubin, Janet Golden, David Rogers, and Ruth A. Zucker.

The two honorary members who will be initiated are Mr. Louis S. Jacobson and Mr. Robert Heath. Mr. Jacobson has been active in university journalism for some time. Mr. Heath was formerly a student council adviser to the SCRIBE. He is now Alumni Secretary at the University.

Scholarship Fund Swelled By $300

Dr. Littlefield has announced that Mr. James Day, owner of the Day Plumbing and Heating Co. has made a pledge of $100 a year for the next three years for the Boldakoff Scholarship Fund.

Mr. Day, who has done a lot of work for the University, said that the gift is a result of his desire to co-operate with the maintenance department.

Charlie Smith, Assistant Director of Social Activities, is the recipient of the scholarship for this year.

Mr. Boldakoff was superintendent of the grounds until his death last Spring and was instrumental in establishing the scholarship fund. Upon his death the staff voted to name the fund in his memory.

O'Connor, Guest

Ray O'Connor, Chairman of the Bridgeport Inter-Group Council will be the guest speaker of the Psychological Society on April 18.

His topic will be the "Role of Psychology in Inter-Group Relations. Mr. O'Connor is also Chairman of the State Committee on Civil Rights.

'Future' Nurses Visit On Campus

The student nurses in the College of Nursing at UB sponsored a "Future Nurses Day" for high school girls interested in making nursing their career last Monday.

The visitors were mainly representatives of The Future Nurses of America, a high school organization which is developing throughout the country and being assisted by the American Nursing Association. Future nurses who are not members of that group were also present.

Shirley Bibbins, the Student Association President of the College of Nursing welcomed the visitors in Bishop Hall. The group then proceeded to carry on a discussion of club activities in the hope that UB nurses would be able to give assistance to the high school organization. Following the discussion, films were shown of the University nurses in training. The day was concluded with a tour of the campus and refreshments served in Bishop Hall.

The committee in charge of the program included Velma Swinton, Dorothy Knee, Vivian Tobiasen, Eunice Prisco, Karoline Kihlander, and Ruth Greenwood.

Dating Raises Marks Says Ohio Professor

By JOHN SMITH

Is your grade point ratio slipping? Does it need a boost? If your answer is yes to any of the preceding questions you'd better jockey over to the Stables and get yourself a date for tonight and all the rest of the nights.

According to Prof. Merton D. Oyler, director of the Marriage Counseling Clinic at Ohio State University, students who date regularly usually make better grades than those who don't. He went on to say that students are romantically minded and practical, but they seem to be dating with sound and genuine thought.

In his research with college students Prof. Oyler discovered that those who date make better grades because the dates fulfill certain desires which tend to reduce worry and feelings of inferiority. Dating has two functions, said Prof. Oyler (pronounced oil-er) for intellectual experience.

If your G. P. R. goes up after you have tried this system of dating don't forget to send a note of thanks to the SCRIBE office.

Annual Wistaria Pageant presented by the Office of Campus Productions, to be held on Marina Circle. Open house at all the dormitories will follow the Pageant.

According to Charles Smith, Chairman of the Social Activities Committee, the arrangements for the weekend are fairly complete, but tentative plans have been made to include feature activities in each event, such as: an alumni-undergraduate softball game, a competitive skit program, and professional entertainment at the Ball.

The method of selection of the Wistaria Queen will resemble that used in 1948 and 1949. Any student is eligible to nominate a candidate. Candidates must be members of the sophomore, junior or senior class, must be in good academic standing, and must carry at least twelve semester hours. Each candidate must appear with her nomination blank with twenty-five signatures, a thumb-nail sketch, and a five by seven uncolored portrait photo on the first floor of Cortright Hall at 5 P. M. on April 17th.

Each candidate will be interviewed by a panel of prominent and impartial citizens of Fairfield County and the selection of the Queen and her court of eight will be based on personal charm, poise, and attractiveness. Nomination blanks are obtainable at the Snack Bar, Marina Hall, and the Office of Student Activities, Howland Hall, any day until April 17. This includes Easter recess.

Further details about the entire weekend will be revealed in the next SCRIBE.

'Student Mayor'

There is always a public response of human interest and oftentimes mildly sarcastic amusement when a student is elected 'Mayor for a Day' or any such position. And, true enough, there is a quality of mock 'going along with the stunt' to the general reaction of such an event. But, there is also a typically American atmosphere of 'everybody has a chance to become President' seriously underlying the lightness of the custom.

When the University of Bridgeport students who are now campaigning on the campus for positions in the City of Bridgeport administration take over for a one-day term of office on April 2; they will be getting and giving a lesson in government through their short, but practical, experience. All of the City officials who are temporarily losing their offices to these students will actually instruct the students in efficient city government leadership. Thus, the students will be able to clarify the theories they are studying in the classrooms. And, the curiosity and interest of the public which hears or reads about 'Student Government Day' will be aroused to a visible concern for the present and future management of government. The incident itself will last only one day and its significance will be quickly dimmed by the next day's news; but its purpose will have been accomplished in exactly the same manner it is every year at the Annual Intercollegiate Student Legislature in Hartford and like practices repeated periodically all over the country.

All the persons who have made this 'Student Government Day' in Bridgeport possible, including the eagerly campaigning students, are due a great deal of credit for what is truly an additional public service as well as an entertaining event.

Education

My angle and experience is with the Air Force and I see sad problems daily. First there are many young men who quit high school due to family hardships, sheer lack of interest in studies, or because of the lure of $1.50 an hour in the local factory. Today they are in the education office here asking us how they can get their high school diplomas, for they are hopelessly stalled in promotions and appointments to service schools that will qualify them for promotion or better jobs.

The Air Force is full of officers and airmen who lack a few or many credits toward their degree. The pressure is on these persons to do something about this deficiency or suffer the consequences. The consequences in this case are slow promotion over the years or expulsion from his career in the Air Force for failure to reach or failure to try to reach the higher standards of the Air Force.

With this facing so many men today, officers and airmen are forced to study on off-duty time through extension courses or under the facilities of the University of Maryland which has set up an extensive division here in Europe. Thousands upon thousands of dollars are spent annually by our government and by these individuals to better the educational level of the services. The facilities are here to accomplish this but the road is a long rough road to travel when the individual has something like sixty semester hours to satisfy his degree requirements. It means he must sacrifice two to four nights per week for classroom and home study after completing a long 8 hour day at his desk, flying or in the field. It means constant enrollments in every 16-week term offered by Maryland through the entire year to earn 15 hours credit.

The purpose of my dissertation is simply this. Stay in school and get your degree. It is more economical, it is far easier, and you face the world as a college graduate earlier in life.

Two nights a week under the oil lamp is rough. Take advantage of the daylight and study there on the campus till that degree is yours. You will be better off I assure you.

Stranger Visits UB

By ROMEO MIZZARO

Last week, Henri Justsix of Paris, an authority on international campus life, made a secret investigation of UB. Having donned the UB uniform of blue jeans and a hairy sweatshirt Henri made himself inconspicuous as he hid in the nooks and corners of the campus.

Monsieur Justsix, a romantic at heart, derived a lot of inspiration from the UB gals. Sitting in a stuffed chair in the Marina lounge, his emotions were stimulated by the sigh of Alvira Sly. Miss Sly, smoothly attired in a question mark T-shirt, fashioned by the book store, her brother's khaki pants, and a pair of cleverly fashioned shoes by "Keds," swished her way to the chow line. Henri was fascinated by Miss Sly and later managed to get an introduction which was cleared through the bursar's office.

Her first words to Henri were so original and romantic that they could have graced the plays of Shakespeare. With one hand on her hip, and a gleam in her eye, she greeted Henri with the words, "H'ya, Buster." Monsieur was swayed by this uninhibited woman. He claimed that she had all the qualities that a man wants in a woman, especially the "back to man" look.

Henri's next move was a visit to the snack bar. He was impressed by the student interest in music. The juke box was blaring with an emotional, dramatic, soprano voice singing "Cry." Henri was puzzled by the fact that no one goes into the snack bar to eat. On the wall there was a birthday chart by the Greek organization, 'Howa Bout Apie' which honored the birthdays of the great men of the nation.

Henri was astonished at the cheap price of "liquor" in the snack bar. The coffee is only ten cents.

Henri, in his visit to the library found out in short time that more dates are arranged due to casual meetings there. As soon as a boy is caught conversing with a girl in the library, they are thrown out together and they usually arrange something during their exile.

Henri was sad on the day he was deported to Paris, but he has learned much about campus life. Henri's last words about UB will rival those of antiquity. 'UB is unique because it is so wonderfully different.

Court Session For UB Night Riders Today

By SCRIBE COURT REPORTER

Some of our dorm girls have lost much sleep and their usual emotional composure. What girl wouldn't if she knew that every time she answered the phone there might be a perverted prowler trying to make contact?

Perhaps their boy friends were even more upset. They were very dumbfounded and chagrined a week ago last night when they discovered themselves locked up in the proverbial "clink." Their careening path of good intentions paved the way to hell-on-earth in one of our "city buildings." They were sure they had captured the prowler for the police—but the police did not like that kind of help.

The capture of the real prowler occurred about the same time the boys were chasing their very likely suspect.

We hope that the Court treated the boys with leniency this morning. Perhaps we might leave such things to the police in the future. After all, they did catch the real prowler.

Dear Editor:

Enclosed is a story that might interest the readers of the Scribe. I dreamed this up while at my desk today. Daily I experience sad stories from Majors, Captains, and airmen who are in a sad state of affairs in education. Perhaps this short dissertation from an alumnus will help students on the campus who may be thinking about dropping school.

In any event, it is a different twist on education from a person in the field who can observe the merits of education.

Just drop me a card and tell me if you can use it or if I am wasting my time.

Just received the latest issue of the Scribe. It looks good, and is a piece of home in Deutschland.

By ANDY DEMOTSES

Easter vacation arrived early this year for Bill O'Brien as he jumped the gun and started the journey to the rest-home one week ahead of schedule. While he was packing, he glanced at me, thought I looked too healthy and asked me to take over for this issue.

First thing on the agenda is Romance, and by coincidence the following gents are all members of Theta Sigma Alumni Association or the fraternity. Weddings galore, and the first one, in May, is Men Medley and the lovely young lady is none other than Mary Lou Janette, both are alumni. Hal Lever is marrying that very cute Jackie Parsons, these two also attended last year.

Another Campus Thunder romance is the Bakers... Technical Director, Dick Kalm, presented leading lady Joyce Mathewson with a diamond for Easter and for Ever. According to Dick, he once visualized the headline, "Technical Director marries Star of Show." Pretty soon, we guess! Another UB romance...

The Ten Tall Men of Walde-mere who received all those pies in the puss, deserve a doughnut pinned on their noses for gal-lantry in action, as well as three cases of Brillo and a year's supply of Duz (that might do it)... Theta Epsilon's 'shaving balloons' was a very interesting and trying task, and was doing all right until the photographer flash went off in my face and I was drenched with lather.

The poor kids taking care of the various dart booths almost got it in the head themselves a few times... Mr. Cohen and Dr. Littlefield were seen at the TS booth chipping golf balls like crazy... Beta Gamma's marriage booth didn't do too well on the amount of money they collected, but this wasn't due to a lack of business, but rather to the fact that the customers took advantage of the darkness.

a different faith... Many of the foreign students being shifted to Indiana.

All the boys toasted Babe Longo at his recent stag and we certainly join in wishing him good luck for his future marriage... Sam Urda seen around campus with cute Betty Durial, a visitor from Albertus Magnus, and she was particularly surprised at the friendly relations between teachers and students here. Hum?

I'm on my way to join Bill O'Brien at that sanatorium, but before I go, a happy Easter to rabbit brings you what you want one and all and I hope the Bunny most.

The difference between "just smoking" and really enjoying your smoke is the taste of a cigarette. You can taste the difference in the smoother, mellow, more enjoyable taste of a Lucky... for two important reasons. We're in the home stretch of another semester and school year, and fraternity and sorority activity is just hitting its peak. Following the Easter vacation, there will be a multitude of fraternity affairs and weekends. It seems as if this year every organization on campus has decided to sponsor a weekend. All these weekends are still in the talking stage and as soon as some definite plans are put forth we'll let you know.

Two more fraternities have just finished their initiations. Congratulations to the new members and lots of luck to them.

Pi Omega Chi—Robert C. Levine, Albert Reihner, John May, and David Bogen.

Alpha Gamma Phi — Gus Anderson, Ray Gittings, Bob Kondracki, and Gene Richardson.

The Pi Omega Chi—Beta Gamma "Silver Mardi Gras" was a great success, both financially and socially. They had a big crowd, great entertainment, and everyone had a good time. That original song by Ronnie Gold and Phil Carrubba was enjoyed by everyone present. I didn't know the boys had it in them. . . . Alpha Delta Omega had a cocktail party and meeting at the home of "Stewy" White. I understand all present had a great time.

Alumni of Sigma Phi Alpha getting ready to incorporate. The same applies for Sigma Lambda Chi. . . . The initiation that POC had at Healy's last Saturday night was very funny. The pledges were really given the works. . . . Alpha Gamma Phi making plans for their big dance to be held April 18th at the Glorietta Manor. It's gonna be semi-formal and non-corsage. . . . Sam Urda, Theta Sigma, and Bill Bigda, Sigma Phi Alpha, ace pitchers of the intramural softball league warming up for the coming season. Bill defending his title of Mr. Softball.

Kappa Beta Rho and Theta Epsilon making plans for their joint dance right after the vacation. The theme will be an "Evening in Paris". The entertainment is going to be all French. More on this later. . . . AGP and TS had a joint beer party at Healy's last week. A good time was had by all. . . . BG-POC held a closed picnic at Putnam Park on Saturday. . . . Theta Sigma making plans for their 4th joint fraternity-alumni weekend. This has become a much awaited annual affair.

Great stunt that POC pulled by stealing the Student Union sign and then having it pop up in the middle of their show. . . . Sigma Phi Alpha had a private party at Lenny's Campus Room for all members and pledges last Saturday night. Everyone present really enjoyed themselves. . . . KBR having a stag beer party tonight to celebrate the ending of classes. . . . BG alumni association getting ready to incorporate. . . . That's all for now. See you next issue

UB Enrollment Drop Causes Faculty Shift

To meet reduced enrollment, the University is currently making several administrative changes. Some of the duties formerly carried by Dean Becker will be taken over by the President and Vice-President, while Dean Becker will take over the College of Education with the assistance of Dean Wochner. In addition, the functions of the Division of Student Personnel are to be reassigned and Dean Fish will assume full teaching responsibility in the College of Education.

Deans, directors, and other administrative personnel will also assume increased teaching responsibilities. Most of these changes will become effective about July 1.

The reduction in enrollment is caused by the decrease in the number of veterans, the drafting of young men for military service, the decrease in the size of high school graduating classes, and the extremely favorable employment opportunities in the industrial urban area.

Anthony Iannone Trainer, Dir. IM Leaves UB Scene

By AL LEPOW

Popular Tony Iannone, who for four years was Director of Intramurals and business manager and trainer of UB varsity teams, has resigned to accept a position in a Bridgeport commercial business. His resignation, tendered a week ago, becomes effective during the Easter recess. Herb Glines, Director of Athletics, and Walter Kondratovich, head football and track coach, will share Tony's duties for the remainder of the semester.

"Tony Tape," as he has affectionately been called, has been the man responsible for healing any and all the aches that befell our athletes. He has also been responsible for setting up the intramural program here at UB, and has successfully supervised its expansion. Today, the program covers almost every sport imaginable.

For many years, Tony, the avid fan, has been at almost every varsity contest since his arrival on the campus. Basketball fans will especially remember his suffering during the recent season. Tony often got excited and had to be calmed down.

Tony, the business manager of all varsity teams, had to arrange all trips, settle finances, attend to a million and one minor details, and play housemaid to the athletes.

His absence will be sorely felt in the Athletic Department, as well as throughout the campus. One can only wish him success on his new job, and knowing Tony, he will be. On behalf of the entire UB campus, a fond farewell.

UB Track Team Plays April 23 At New Britain

Under the guidance of Coach Walt Kondratovich, the fleet Purple Knights have been rounding into shape in anticipation of their first meet of the year, to be held at New Britain on April 23.

Starting off slowly, the Cinder-men have had to overcome such obstacles as weather and mid-semester exams. At present, about 40 candidates have been working out daily at Seaside Park, and according to unofficial sources, this year's team may be UB's best. Thus far, Bridgeport has never won a track meet, but 1951 will be different if team morale has anything to do with it.

QUESTION: Do you want an honor system set up at UB? Why?

Danny Loeson, Sophomore—Mathematics: No. If an honor system were in effect I would be guilty of cheating if I failed to report any offender. I could not bring myself to turn anyone in; this, consequently, would make me as guilty as the actual offender. It is impossible for a student to look at his own paper and nothing else during the exam. Therefore, this so called "honor system" would put undue pressure on the students, guilty ones as well as innocent, and thereby make it a "dishonorable system".

Janice Reiche, Sophomore—Journalism: No! Because I don't think that U. B. is ready for it as yet. I definitely agree with the Student Council when they voted the honor system down. I don't think that the students would report their fellow classmates for cheating, and if they didn't you could not consider it a true honor system, and if we were to have such a system it would have to be honor to the fullest extent or it wouldn't be worth while to have it at all.

Bob Plotnick, Junior—History: Yes, I am in favor of an honor system because by

UB Soc. Majors Attend Pa. Meet

The Sociology Colloquium sent eight delegates to the Eastern Sociological Convention, at Haverford College, Haverford, Pa., this week.

The sociology majors attended lecture sessions dealing with race relations, urban sociology, social psychology, community organization, and social theory. Dr. Kneppler and Dr. Chapman attended the convention with the group.

its very nature, it relies for its effectiveness on the fullest possible utilization of, and conformity with the highest and best of our traditional concepts of responsible citizenship. If it is looked upon as a cold, impersonal, abstract system of trial and punishment, it is not likely to attract the respect and support of the students.

Shelly Kornman, Sophomore—Sec'y: Though the idea of an honor system is a highly commendable one, I believe that it would be unsuccessful at UB if instituted within the next ten years. This is so because of 1) lack of moral and ethical responsibility among students, 2) lack of encouragement toward ethical procedures on the part of the administration and faculty, and 3) lack of tradition and spirit attached to the university.

UB Golfsters Blank Adelphi In Season's Inaugural, 9-0

The University of Bridgeport golf team opened its '52 Spring season Wednesday afternoon with an impressive 9-0 victory over Adelphi College of Garden City, Long Island.

The long and well trapped Beth Page Course proved a rugged test for the linksmen in the early season match but Coach Herb Glines' sextet gained an early edge and prevailed throughout.

The combined talents of last year's returning lettermen, Vinnie Milewski, Hank Kuba and Gus Lucas with newcomers Vin Maiocco, Bill Tielert and Lou Saccone were too strong for the team from Garden City. Especially pleasing to Coach Glines were the impressive victories by Maiocco, Tielert and Saccone in their initial test in intercollegiate golf competition. The team plays Manhattan on Thursday at home, travels to Rutherford, New Jersey on the 14th to tackle Fairleigh-Dickinson, and then returns to face Seton Hall here on the 22nd.

Results of single matches: V. Milewski (UB) defeated J. Glynn (A) 5-4; H. Kuba (UB) downed V. Lipnicki (A) 4-3; V. Maiocco (UB) downed P. McDee (A) 4-3; Lucas (UB) defeated E. Lovasa (A) 3-2; B. Tielert (UB) bested H. Stolitzy (A) 5-4; Saccone (UB) won over G. Nammock (A) 4-3.

Best-Ball results: Milewski and Kuba (UB) defeated Glynn and Lipnicki (A) 5-4; Maiocco and Lucas (UB) downed McDee and Lovasa (A) 4-3; Tielert and Saccone (UB) defeated Stolitzy and Nammock (A) 5-4.

Girl's Record Six And Four

A victory skein of two impressive wins in a row (41-20) over GE, and (45-17) over the Vips was broken for the UB Lassies by the spirited Pals of Stratford (26-15) in the YWCA basketball league.

The Vips contest found a reversal of the usual UB scoring parade. Guards Joan Hutchinson, 'Mo' Daley, Jody Whitehurst, and Pat Craig became part-time forwards for the evening and led the University team to victory. Joan Glover, Jean Johnston, and Jeanette Randall were converted to very capable guards.

An aggressive, close-checking Pals squad kept the UB Lassies scoring punch in check to break the Purple victory string. The season's YWCA league record now stands at six wins, four losses.

SOFTBALL DEADLINE

Deadline for team softball entries in the girls' intramural league has been set for April 10.

Entry deadline for individual competition in badminton and tennis has been set for April 21. All entries should be turned into the Athletic Office.

UB Aquatic Stars Seek Berth With U. S. Olympic Swim Team

SWIM STAR Frank Anastas, probably the most outstanding swim-star ever to represent the University of Bridgeport, missed an opportunity to gain a position with the Olympic swim team at the AAU meet at Yale, but has another opportunity in the national YMCA competition at York, Pa. on April 24, 25 and 26.

Frank Anastas and Sand Mehorter failed to reach the finals in the national collegiate AAU swimming meet held at the Yale, Payne-Whitney pool on April 2, 3, 4. Both aquatic stars still have a chance to represent the United States in the 1952 Olympics.

Sand Mehorter finished seventh in the qualifying trials for the one-meter diving finals. The AAU has nominated the first six finalists to represent the United States in the coming Olympics. However, if one of the six finalists decides not to make the trip to Helsinki, or if for some other reason, one of these finalists cannot compete, Sand Mehorter is next in line for Olympic diving representation in one-meter competition. Needless to say, Sand is anxiously awaiting any such development.

Frank Anastas was off his best form in the trial 220 and 100 yd. free-style races at the Yale swim pool. Some idea of the competition involved may be realized from the fact that on Friday evening three national records were broken.

The Bridgeport YMCA, however, is sending Anastas to the national YMCA swim meet to be held in York, Pa. on April 24, 25, and 26. Competition from the YMCA swimmers will probably not be quite so keen. A victory in the nationals for Anastas will send him into the Olympic tryouts and possibly still qualify him for a berth on the team representing the United States in the Olympics.

Softball Season Now Under Way

Intramural softball is under way on the Seaside Park diamonds with UB students once again making an effort to belt the horsehide into Long Island Sound. Thirteen teams are entered in one league this season. The schedule will include 12 games for each team.

Sigma Phi Alpha, led by fireballer Bill Bigda, "Mr. Softball", of last season are the defending champs.

Teams entered are: Alpha Gamma Phi, Waldemere Hall, Sigma Lambda Chi, Rockets, Upsilon Beta Sigma, Park Hall Plus, Alpha Phi Omega, Pi Omega Chi, Theta Sigma, Kappa Beta Rho, Beta Alpha, Sigma Phi Alpha, and All Stars.

Volleyball April 21

Volleyball and horseshoe pitching will begin on April 21. Entries will still be accepted at the Athletic Office. Tennis team entries are also open.

Tough Grid Schedule Faces Knights In '52

The UB gridiron forces of Walt Kondratovich will be facing their toughest schedule to date, when they open the 1952 football season in September.

An ambitious nine game slate, headed by such newcomers as Brandeis University and St. Michael's College, make up the competition for the Purple Knights.

BBJ's Win In Bowling

The B. B. J.'s, 1952 intramural bowling champions, brought the season to a close by defeating the Beta Alpha finalists in playoff competition.

Leveen, Wells, Sullivan, Mott, and D'Iorio sparkplugged the B. B. J.'s into a regular season second-place deadlock and on through the playoffs to the championship.

Eliminated in the finals were Alpha Phi Omega and Sigma Phi Alpha. SPA had finished on top of the league in regular season play.

Also returning are Maryland State and Upsala College, both having met the Knights in previous years. Wilkes College, Adelphi College, New Haven Teachers, Arnold, and New Britain complete the full two months of action.

Six of the contests are home games, while three are on foreign soil. Upsala, Adelphi, and St. Michael's are the away tilts, while the remaining six will be played at Candlelite Stadium. Such powers as Brandeis and Maryland State should prove strong attractions, with the traditional contests drawing the rival crowds as usual.

Following is the schedule: Sept. 20, Upsala (A); Sept. 27, Brandeis (H); Oct. 4, Wilkes (H); Oct. 11, Adelphi (A); Oct. 18, New Haven (H); Oct. 25, Arnold (H); Nov. 1, St. Michael's (A); Nov. 8, New Britain (H); Nov. 15, Maryland State (H).

Naval Reserve Seeks Undergraduate Women

By GINNY TENNANT

Girls, here is that big chance to do something for Uncle Sam. Training for commissions as Waves in the Naval Reserves is now open to the undergraduate women of the University of Bridgeport.

Any girl who is a citizen of the United States, a full time college student, 18 years of age and over, of good character, and is in good physical condition is acceptable to apply for the Reserve Officer Candidate Program. Those who interested must be able to complete two summers training periods of six weeks.

The ROC program was established to provide a continuing input of newly commissioned and well qualified Naval Reserve Officers to keep the Naval Reserve at authorized Officer personnel strength.

If any of you girls are interested, then hurry. Since this program is intended, primarily, to procure general line officers, only a limited number may be appointed in the staff corps.

The curriculum emphasizes indoctrination of military subjects of general interest, therefore, no attempt to "specialize" is made at the ROC schools. Staff Corps Officers for the Medical and Dental Corps will be procured under the provisions of other programs in which military indoctrination is not stressed.

Candidates are paid at the rate of $95 per month and subsistence and quarters are furnished. Women applicants, if not selected for enrollment in the Reserve Officer Candidate program, will be discharged from the U. S. Naval Reserve by the Cognizant Commandant, upon receipt of individual requests provided such requests are submitted prior to August 1 following such enlistment.
